

Young Friend headed to Africa

Meeting has agreed to provide a $2000 scholarship to help Stephanie Gossett reach another milestone in her journey. After her next semester at Earlham, she will be headed to Ghana for an intense semester of Women's Studies. As she intends to pursue a career of service to women in Africa, this is a great milestone indeed!